

COOPER STANDARD HONORED BY GENERAL MOTORS AS SUPPLIER OF THE YEAR

NORTHVILLE, Mich., March 30, 2023 – General Motors recognized Cooper Standard as a 2022 Supplier of the Year. GM celebrated honorees at its 31st annual Supplier of the Year event in San Antonio, Texas last week.

GM's Supplier of the Year award recognizes global suppliers that distinguish themselves by exceeding GM's requirements, in turn providing customers with innovative technologies and among the highest quality in the automotive industry.

This is the sixth time Cooper Standard has received the award.

"We are proud to be again recognized by General Motors for our commitment to sustainable solutions that meet the needs of the evolving mobility industry," said Shannon Quinn, Vice President, Chief Commercial and Strategy Officer, Cooper Standard. "Our highly engaged team is dedicated to developing breakthrough innovations and implementing cutting-edge manufacturing and business processes to deliver the highest quality and most robust solutions. This latest Supplier of the Year award is a testament to their hard work."

"We are thrilled to recognize these outstanding suppliers after yet another challenging year in the automotive industry," said Jeff Morrison, GM vice president of Global Purchasing and Supply Chain. "They overcame countless obstacles and exemplified what it means to be resilient, resourceful and determined. Beyond that, these suppliers demonstrated their commitment to sustainable innovation and to driving advanced solutions in collaboration with the GM team."

Each year, GM's Supplier of the Year recipients are selected by a global, cross-functional GM team for their performance in criteria such Product Purchasing, Global Purchasing and Manufacturing Services, Customer Care and Aftersales and Logistics.
