

COOPER STANDARD AWARDED WITH ECOVADIS SILVER STATUS FOR EVOLVING SUSTAINABILITY ACHIEVEMENTS

Cooper Standard continues to achieve Silver Medal Status from the sustainability rating platform EcoVadis, a leading provider of business sustainability ratings. This is the eighth year the Company has earned a medal from EcoVadis and the seventh time receiving Silver Medal Status.

Notably, Cooper Standard's score increased to 68, which places the Company in the 88th percentile – and the top 15% – of companies assessed by EcoVadis in the past 12 months and the top 4% of companies in the Manufacture of parts and accessories for motor vehicles industry.

EcoVadis' purpose is to help guide companies towards a more sustainable world and has rated more than 130,000 companies. Its global sustainability ratings are based on international sustainability standards, such as the UN Global Compact, the International Labour Organization (ILO) conventions, and the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) standards, and assess a company's performance across four main themes: Environment, Labor and Human Rights, Ethics, and Sustainable Procurement.
